The inspiration to do Mission Fat Hearts was created after seeing how much the world needs kindness now more than ever. Created by elementary school teacher, Mandy, and inspired by her kids, Mission Fat Hearts has caught the eye and heart of author Rebecca Yee. Working together, Mandy and Rebecca have turned Mission Fat Hearts into an inspirational project with hopes of teaching kids to put others first and treat people kindly.

WHO IS IT FOR?

Anyone or any family who wants to make the world a better place through random acts of kindness. ♥

WHY THIS MOVIE?

Kids imitate what they see on TV and in movies. We want to create the Mission Fat Hearts animated movie to show kids how they can perform small acts of kindness, as well as the effect it can have on someone's life.

THE MISSION

The goal of the Mission Fat Hearts Movie is to encourage and inspire children to be kind to everyone they meet. The movie will show them how one simple act of kindness can create a ripple effect that can change the world.

THE BOOK

WHO IS IT FOR?

Are your kids ready to be secret agents?

If they are, here is a Christmas mission the whole family will love! Your mission, should you choose to accept it, is to join Pookie, Thor and their new friend Kisa the Elf spread kindness EVERYWHERE this holiday season.

From December 1st - 25th secret agents are tasked with a daily mission to complete.

Missions include leaving kind notes and helping people around them, to spreading cheer with cards, crafts, and songs. Children will experience many ways they can spread kindness and cheer to people around them and in the community, and see firsthand the difference it makes in other people's lives.

Make kindness a mission this holiday season!
